The Grouper Book was started in 2011 by a community member, but not completed. It aimed to provide documentation on Grouper which could take people from beginner to expert. It was to supplement and summarize existing documentation which is actively updated. Contributions and comments from the Grouper community are welcome.

Sections on the Wiki will be marked in one of 4 stages:

- Blank - no real content yet
- Draft - initial drafts
- Reviewed - has been reviewed for accuracy (technical and linguistic)
- Completed - finished (at least for the current version)
