

Three InCommon Sessions Available via the Web

The Internet2 Member Meeting has kicked off in San Antonio. There are five InCommon sessions during the next three days, and three are available for remote participants. They include:

Federating with Health and Science applications, featuring speakers from the NIH and NSF. Tuesday, October 6, at 5:30 p.m. EDT / 4:30 p.m. CDT / 2:30 PDT. Available via netcast.

The Future of InCommon, featuring a discuss of the draft business and financial plan and interim 2010 fee structure (approved unanimously by the InCommon Steering Committee. Wednesday, October 7, at 9:45 a.m. EDT / 8:45 a.m. CDT / 6:45 a.m. PDT. Available via Adobe Connect InCommon Collaboration, featuring information from the InC-Library Services group and its work with vendors, as well as from the InC-Student group and its work with federating the National Student Clearinghouse Student Self-Service application. Wednesday, Oct. 7, at 4 p.m. EDT / 3 p.m. CDT / 1 p.m. PDT. Available via netcast.

For details on how to connect and participate, go to http://www.incommonfederation.org/FMM_09.html.