

Grouper attestation edit settings

Wiki Home	Grouper Release Announcements	Grouper Guides	Grouper Deployment Guide	Community Contributions	Internal Developer Resources
---------------------------	---	--------------------------------	--	---	--

Click on More actions Attestation on a Folder or Group to see the attestation settings. Then click Attestation actions Edit attestation settings

Edit attestation settings on a group

Edit group attestation

Attestation actions ▼

This group has attestation configured directly on this group

Attestation	Yes, does have attestation directly assigned ▼ <small>If this group has attestation configured on it directly, not inherited from ancestor folder</small>
Has attestation	Yes, attestation is enabled ▼ <small>If configured to be attested. It is possible that attestation is configured to be off.</small>
Send email	Yes, send email alerts (recommended) ▼ <small>If email alerts should be sent out to people who need to review the membership</small>
Email group managers	Yes, email the group admins and updaters ▼ <small>If the group admins and updaters/readers should be emailed when attestation is due</small>
Use default recertify days	Yes, use default recertify days (180 days) ▼ <small>Use the system wide default of 180 days for recertification</small>
Mark this group as reviewed	Yes, mark this group as reviewed ▼ <small>Mark this group's last certified date as today</small>

Save

Cancel

If you select some options, more options will show:

More actions ▾

More ▾

Members

Privileges

More ▾

Edit group attestation

Attestation actions ▾

This group has attestation configured directly on this group

Attestation

Yes, does have attestation directly assigned ▾

If this group has attestation configured on it directly, not inherited from ancestor folder

Has attestation

Yes, attestation is enabled ▾

If configured to be attested. It is possible that attestation is configured to be off.

Send email

Yes, send email alerts (recommended) ▾

If email alerts should be sent out to people who need to review the membership

Email group managers

No, email a custom list of email addresses ▾

If the group admins and updaters/readers should be emailed when attestation is due

Email addresses (comma separated)

mchyzer@somewhere.edu *

Enter comma separated email addresses if not emailing the group managers

Use default recertify days

No, use custom recertify days ▾

Use the system wide default of 180 days for recertification

Days until recertify

60 *

Number of days until need to recertify from last certification

Mark this group as reviewed

No, do not mark this group as reviewed ▾

Mark this group's last certified date as today

Save

Cancel

Edit attestation on folder

Edit folder

More actions ▾

More ▾

Folder contents

Privileges

More ▾

Stem attestation

Attestation actions ▾

This folder has attestation configured directly on this folder

Attestation

Yes, does have attestation directly assigned ▾

If this folder has attestation configured on it directly, not inherited from ancestor folder

Has attestation

Yes, attestation is enabled ▾

If configured to be attested. It is possible that attestation is configured to be off.

Send email

Yes, send email alerts (recommended) ▾

If email alerts should be sent out to people who need to review the membership

Email group managers

Yes, email the group admins and updaters ▾

If the group admins and updaters/readers should be emailed when attestation is due

Use default recertify days

Yes, use default recertify days (180 days) ▾

Use the system wide default of 180 days for recertification

Folder scope

All groups in this folder or subfolders ▾

Do these attestation settings affect groups in this folder and all subfolders (default) or only groups directly in this folder

Mark groups as reviewed

No, do not mark these groups as reviewed ▾

For the groups in this folder, mark the last certified date as today

Save

Cancel