This consultation is now closed. It was open from December 6, 2017 to January 2, 2018

The updated charter is here: http://doi.org/10.26869/TI.94.1

InCommon's Assurance Advisory Committee (AAC) proposed a number of changes to their charter, including changing the title to the Community Trust and Assurance Board (CTAB). The duties include an expanded focus and change the AAC into a board that is representative of the InCommon community in support of our Baseline Expectations. Background and additional details were presented at a Dec. 6, 2017 webinar; you can find the slides and recording linked from here.

Number	Current Text	Proposed Text / Query / Suggestion	Proposer	+1 (add your name here if you agree with the proposal)	Action (please leave this column blank)
1	Duties item3.	Under section 2. Duties, item 3. I would like second sentence to add the work Advocate – possibly instead of identify and engage – use identify and advocate. The reason is without a group advocating for changes to improve assurance requirements our nature is to keep the status quo.	Jack suess		"…and advocate for their adoption." has been added to part 3 of the duties.
2	Membership	Consider adding Privacy Officers/Experts	Nathan Dors	+1 Brett Bieber	The Charter and membership will be reviewed annually to ensure appropriate representation, and at that time a named Privacy Officer may be added.
