(Sunset) FileSender

The community Filesender working group has reviewed usage metrics for the service including file sizes, file types, number of domains using the service, and number of unique users per week and has reached a consensus to sunset the service. The service was sunset August 16th, 2020.

For institutions interested in continuing to use FileSender, the FileSender software itself is open source and can be found here: https://filesender.org/software/.
