

CIC Developing Cookbook for Active Directory and Silver

The CIC schools are pursuing a higher level of certification through the InCommon Federation, to which all CIC schools belong. This will allow users to access shared digital resources more securely. In addition, management policies will be refined, and represent a greater ability for CIC schools to collaborate on higher-stakes activities.

Part of the effort is to develop a cookbook to aid in configuring Active Directory to meet the requirements for InCommon Silver.