Document Stewardship Community Review

This consultation on Trust and Identity Document Stewardship closed on November 4, 2016

Documents for review (note that as of 2017, these are consider older versions)

- Trust and Identity Document Stewardship, which describes the stewardship process, and
- The Document Repository Service, which describes the Trust and Identity Division's support service for the process and the documents. It also contains criteria for the selection of a technical platform for the repository itself.

Updated but not yet formally accepted documents are here (google doc)

As of May 2017:

Document Stewardship doc

Document Repository doc

Document Stewardship wiki

Consultation Proposals and Feedback

If you have comments that do not lend themselves well to the tabular format below, please create a new Google doc and link to it in the suggestion section below.

Number	Current Text	Proposed Text / Query / Suggestion	Proposer	+1 (add your name here if you agree with the proposal)	Action (please leave this column blank)
1		Should Internet2 Be Creating Standards?	Steve Olshansky		Text will be revised to clarify what is meant by "standard" in this context.
2	Documents must be plain text, PDF, or HTML. PDF documents must be accompanied by a plain text or HTML representation of the document.	Documents must be plain text or accessible HTML. An accessible PDF representation may accompany the document.	Brett Bieber		Text will be revised as suggested.
3		Add Accessibility as a required factor for any additional repository format.	Brett Bieber		Great suggestion. This will be added.
4		The term "Work History" is not well defined	Marlena Merrin-Erdos		Good point. The text will be revised to indicate that "Work History" refers to things such as wiki materials, and perhaps mailing list archives, that are not part of published documents but can illuminate authors' thought processes.
5

See Also

- Trust and Identity Document Stewardship
- Consultations/Document Review Home